AMERICANS SPARED.

Our Warship Atlanta Prevents an Outrage.

HAVANA REVIEW DID NOT OCCUR

Neither Were the American Prisoners Executed as the Program Contemplated. True Details of the Valenzuela Battle. General Campos Badly Defeated—Censorship of Dispatches.

TAMPA, Fla., July 29.—Passengers arriving by the Plant steamship from Cuba last night state that in the battle at Valenzuela, Campos' force, numbered 1,000 and the insurgents 1,500. By the vigilance of the Spanish advance pickets, the Spanish troops were not led into the Cuban strongholds, but sheered off into a plain where the forces met. The insurgents killed all the Spanish horses in order to capture what provisions, arms and ammunition they bore and to cut off Campos' escape.

Two mounted pickets arriving they gave their mounts to Campos and a companion, who reached Bayama at 2 o'clock in the morning. The insurgent losses were between 80 and 100, while the Spanish loss is said to have been more than 700. In this engagement Lala Benita had 200 men under his command, of which but 25 survived.

General Maximo Gomez's headquarters are now at Najas, which is in easy access to a number of principal cities. Colonel Mirabel, commanding 600 men, hovers between Puerto Principe and Nevitas, intercepting all provisions and livestock. He also tears up the rails and otherwise destroys the railroad.

It is said that Spaniards in Havana desire Campos to institute a reign of terror by slaughtering Cubans indiscriminately. They do not want him to be so conservative. About the 20th a small bill was circulated in Havana, urging that in the review on the 24th, which was the queen's birthday, the proper action would be to visit the Cabanas and get Sangulley, Aguirre and Gomez to put a rope around their necks and drag them around the streets.

The Atlanta arriving there on the morning of the 22d caused a suspension of the outrage. The review did not occur. Manuel Sangulley, now in New York, received a letter from his imprisoned brother, advising him of the contemplated move, and the former at once notified the secretary of state. The departure of the Atlanta from Key West immediately followed. When the Atlanta returned to Key West she was placed in quarantine.

Campos is expected in Havana on Tuesday.

EXPEDITION EN ROUTE.

Formidable War Vessel Fitted Out and Manned at Sea.

PHILADELPHIA, July 29.—The Press publishes the following: By Tuesday or Wednesday of this week there will be in Cuban waters the largest expedition from this country that has yet left. It will be under the command of Colonel Enrique Collazo, who arrived in this country about July 6, and since that time has been preparing for this expedition.

The ship is fitted out as a war vessel and is capable of a speed of 17 knots an hour, and has under 19. About 10 days ago a trial trip was made off Sandy Hook, and she was at once accepted and the money paid over. Clearance papers were obtained and the vessel put out to sea.

A contingent of about 25 loyal Cubans, skilled shipwrights and experienced men-of-war men were shipped on another vessel, and transferred to her on the high seas. Rapid firing four and six-inch guns were purchased, and these, with two Gatling guns, were sent out in the same vessel, and by the time the boat reaches Cuban waters she will have quite a formidable battery in position.

What is needed more than anything else by the insurgents is said to be aboard the vessel. There is said to have been loaded from this city 3,000 Remington rifles and 50,000 pounds of ammunition. The rifles and ammunition are said to have been shipped to this city by the manufacturers, or rather to a point near the city, and loaded on vessels at points down the river and bay. They were then carried out to the high seas and there transferred to the vessel purchased by the insurgents. Everything was completed for sailing on Saturday night and the vessel is now believed to be on its way to Cuba.

There is but one Cuban in the party. Among those who are enrolled is a former officer of the United States navy and officer of the national guard and four or five men who served throughout the late civil war. The names of these people will not be made known until the vessel lands its men on Cuban soil. For obvious reasons the name of the vessel has also been kept quiet. As soon as the Cubans are recognized as belligerents by some foreign government, the vessel will be purchased by the insurgents. When this is done the Cuban flag will be raised on her and she will be named in all probability the "President Marti," in honor of the late leader of the insurgents.

This recognition is expected from a South or Central American republic in a very few days. The first step toward this will be taken in a day or so if it has not already been taken. It is the purpose of those on the island to set up a provisional government at Manzanillo or Bayama or some other point in a day or so. If the advice received, by the local Cubans are correct, to the effect that General Martinez de Campos is now practically a prisoner in Bayama.

GENERAL CAMPOS' DEFEAT.

Probably a True Account of the Manzanillo-Bayama Battle.

LONDON, July 29.—The Times' dispatch from Havana says: Accounts of the fight on the road between Manzanillo and Bayama (in which General Santocildes was killed) which have been published hitherto were under censorship and largely imaginary. No official account has yet been received from Captain General Campos. The government admits that three officers and 70 men were killed.

The general impression here is that Captain General Campos met with a distinct reverse. All the mules and horses were killed by his order, so that he lost his baggage train. Campos himself arrived at Bayama on foot. The dead and wounded were left on the field. It is stated in official circles that Captain General Campos went to Bayama against the advice of the general commanding at Manzanillo, because he had heard that the insurgents intended to occupy the town and proclaim a provisional government.

ADVICES TO MADRID.

Spanish Soldiers in Cuba Dying of the Vomit.

MADRID, July 29.—Advices from the island of Porto Rico state that vomit has broken out among the Spanish troops forming the garrison there. The daily mortality is 20 per cent of the cases.

A force of Spaniards under Colonel Zamora, acting with Yzua's column, defeated the insurgents under Zavas at Mueve Villas, Cuba. The insurgent loss was 20 killed and wounded. The Spaniards lost one wounded.

Marshal Martinez de Campos has left Santiago for Cienfuegos.

A dispatch from Havana says that the captain of the United States cruiser Atlanta was interviewed by a local paper. He declared, during the interview, that the Washington government was resolved to do its utmost to prevent separatist expeditions, and that his instructions on this point were very precise.

Saved by Our Intervention.

NEW YORK, July 29.—The steamer Yumuri of the Ward line, from Havana, brought to this city yesterday Mrs. Antonio Ruiz Perdomo, the head of a band of guerrilla fighters who was captured by the Spanish authorities near Havana, imprisoned at Mora Castle, and was released from prison upon the intervention of United States Consul General Williams and was deported from the country, arriving in this city last week.

DEATH OF EDWARD BEECHER.

He Was a Brother to the Noted Divine, Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

BROOKLYN, July 29.—Rev. Dr. Edward Beecher, brother of the famous divine, Henry Ward Beecher, died at his home, 182 Macon street, early Sunday morning. He was 92 years of age and spent the greater part of his life in the ministry.

Mr. Beecher, who was older than his more famous brother, was born at East Hampton, L. I., on Aug. 27, 1803. In 1830 he accepted the first presidency of the Illinois college at Jacksonville, Ill., which position he held for the succeeding 12 years. During the Alton riots in 1838 the mob attempted to murder Dr. Beecher on account of his pulpit utterances.

His next call was to the Salem Street Congregational church, Boston, where he remained until 1855, when he accepted the offer of the Congregational church at Galesburg, Ill., retaining that position until the 70th year of his age.

He came to Brooklyn in 1872 and was associated with his brother in the publication of "The Christian Union."

The funeral will take place from the Plymouth church on Wednesday, interment at Greenwood cemetery.

SICK AND STARVING.

Desperate Straits of Blacks Trying to Get Out of Mexico.

EAGLE PASS, Tex., July 29.—United States Consul Jesse Sparks has wired to Assistant Secretary Adcox to Washington, D. C., requesting that the government furnish from San Antonio several thousand rations with which to feed the hundred of starving negroes returning from the Ellis colony at Tiahualilo.

Fifty-four negroes are at Jarai, where they have been fed by Station Agent Bailey of the Mexican International railroad. Over 200 are at Torreon and hundreds more are on their way from the ill-fated colony. Smallpox has appeared among them and 15 have been isolated by the authorities at Torreon.

Others are suffering from a peculiar and fatal disease unknown to medical science, of which ascites and paralysis are prominent symptoms. Manager L. M. Johnson of the Mexican International railroad offered to transport the stranded colonists to Texas if so requested by the Mexican authorities.

Death at a Dance.

PADUCAH, Ky., July 29.—At Birmingham, Marshall county, 20 miles from here, Saturday night George Egnar was stabbed to death by Simon Adam at a dance. A feud had existed between the two men several years. At the dance an altercation began terminating in a general fight. Egnar was killed and Adam and another man named Whirlfield fatally wounded. There is great excitement and more trouble is anticipated between the families involved.

Pioneer of Kansas City Dead.

KANSAS CITY, July 29.—Mrs. Amelia Steen, a pioneer of Kansas City, died yesterday. Mrs. Steen was born in Kentucky in 1813 and came to Kansas City when it was a trading post.

NO INDIAN MASSACRE

The Startling Reports Have Not Been Confirmed.

A FEW WHITE MEN KILLED.

There Was Also a Few Indians Met With the Same Fate—United States Troops Nearing Jackson's Hole and It Is Believed That the Trouble Will Soon Be Settled.

MARKET LAKE, Ida., July 29.—According to Agent Teter of the Fort Hall, Idaho, reservation, there is no truth in the report of the massacre of white settlers by Indians at Jackson's Hole.

The facts in the case are that several settlers are missing and may have been killed by the Indians, but, on the other hand, several Indians are missing and may have been killed by the whites. If there has been enough lives lost to call the affair a massacre, it is a question as to whether it was an Indian massacre or a white massacre.

There are some pretty tough citizens down at Jackson's Hole. The places filled up with bunko men and gamblers of all descriptions. Poor Lo has not been getting any the best of it among these men. They beat him out of his money and then kill his game. The Indians are desperate. The whites, in violation of the law, have killed game the year around. They have learned that the Indians will probably have no more money, and now they want the soldiers to kill the red men off.

That the Indians are now in an ugly mood no one can deny, but they also know the power of the government, and there is nothing that they fear more than the white man's law. The situation is one which social economists might study. The Indians are without means of subsistence and the whites are persecuting them.

GENERAL STIZER'S REPORT.

No Massacre Has Yet Occurred but One Is Heavily Feared.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 29.—The commander at Fort Russell has received orders from General Coppinger to put three additional companies of the Seventeenth Infantry in readiness to go to Market Lake, Ida., at once.

Governor Richards reached home from Rock Springs, Wyo., yesterday. He has kept posted on the situation at Jackson's Hole by Adjutant General Stizer. The rumor of the massacre of 16 families by Indians is reported by Adjutant General Stizer as being entirely false. He says, however, an attack is feared. The settlers have taken their families to Marys, where they feel confident of warding off any attack.

DISPATCHES TO HEADQUARTERS.

Enough United States Troops En Route to Suppress the Trouble.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Dispatches received at army headquarters here from General Coppinger show that the force of cavalry ordered to Jackson's Hole, the scene of the Indian troubles in Wyoming, is making its way there, and will probably reach the place by Tuesday night. In addition other troops have been ordered to Market Lake from Fort Russell, so as to be in readiness for active work should their services be required. No mention is made of further trouble, and with the known peaceable attitude of the Indians on the Washakie and Dachesne reservations, the situation is regarded as very much simplified.

General Coppinger's latest dispatch reads substantially as follows: "Major Chaffee's squadron of cavalry left Market Lake at 5 p. m. Saturday and will probably reach Marysville, near Jackson's Hole, on Little Grove Tree lake, on Tuesday night. Constant communication between the two points, Marysville and Market Lake, will be kept up by courier lines. Two Indians and the chiefs of the Shoshones and Bannocks from the Fort Hall reservation left Market Lake Saturday morning to join Major Chaffee."

Another dispatch from General Coppinger states that the road to Marysville, except 10 miles through Teton Pass, is reported as good. Five companies of the Eighth Infantry left Fort Russell Saturday afternoon, to be held at Market Lake as a reserve force. The commanding officers of Fort Washakie, Wyo., and Fort Dachesne, Utah, report that the Indians on their respective reservations are not involved in the hostile movement. Agent Teter of the Fort Hall reservation is en route with the department commander to Marysville. The companies of the Eighth Infantry will reach Market Lake Monday morning.

The statement that the Indians on the Washakie and Fort Dachesne reservations are not involved in the present movement is regarded by the officers of the army as very important. The Shoshones are under the direction of the former reservation and the Utes under the agent of the latter, so that it is felt here that there will be no trouble experienced from them.

The condition of affairs, it is believed here, makes the situation much easier to handle, for with but one tribe of Indians to deal with the uprising can be much more easily suppressed. There are now four troops of cavalry on their way to Marysville and five more will soon be at Market Lake, which makes the available force all that is hoped will be necessary to quell the disturbance.

Indians Well Fortified.

SALT LAKE CITY, July 29.—A special to The Herald from Market Lake, Ida.,

says: Advice just received from the troops are to the effect that the Indians are pouring into Jackson's Hole from all directions, though they have not molested settlers. They are located in the widest part of the valley in a position from which all the troops in this department could not drive them if they chose to remain. The troops camped last night 25 miles west of Rexburg.

Trouble Expected in the Big Hole Country.

SALT LAKE, July 29.—The Salt Lake Herald-Examiner company shipped on the train going north yesterday afternoon a large consignment of arms and ammunition. The order came by telegraph from St. Anthony, and as that is the entrance to the Big Hole country, it is evident that the settlers there are expecting Indian trouble.

BODIES RIPPED & MANGLED.

Three Boys Run Down by a Train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Early yesterday morning on the tracks of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad near Riverdale Park, a suburb of this city, were found the mangled bodies of three boys, ranging in age from 10 to 15 years. They had evidently been run down by a train Saturday night, and had remained undiscovered until next morning. The bodies were identified as those of J. Waters Blundon, son of J. U. Blundon, a prominent contractor and real estate broker of this city; Gny Brown, son of W. B. Brown of 2125 H street, and Charlie Lynch of Riverdale.

It is believed the boys were struck by the fast western express which passes a local train at this point about the time the accident is supposed to have occurred. The bodies were found huddled together, and mangled almost beyond recognition. A coroner's jury was empaneled, but a verdict was withheld until the testimony of the train's crew can be secured.

CRIME PROMPTED BY JEALOUSY.

A Pretty Mulatto Girl Shot by Her Lover Who Takes His Own Life.

CLEVELAND, July 29.—At an early hour Sunday Emma Mitchell, a pretty mulatto girl, aged 16, was shot and fatally injured by James Lock, a musician, who at once turned the revolver upon himself and sent a bullet through his brain. Lock had been paying attentions to the girl for some time. Last night he called upon her. It was long after midnight when he started to leave her home, at 28 South alley.

The young people stood at the door for more than half an hour. Then the girl's mother was startled by two reports of a pistol. Going to the door she found Lock lying dead and her daughter unconscious, with a bullet wound in her forehead. The girl was taken to an hospital, where she died in about an hour. It is believed that jealousy prompted the crime.

FOR THE PRESIDENT'S FISHING.

A Beautiful Naptha Launch to Replace the Catboat Ruth.

BUZZARD'S BAY, July 29.—The steam yacht Oneida with her owner, Mr. H. C. Benedict, the intimate friend of President Cleveland, on board, arrived here late Saturday evening. The Oneida brought a little naptha launch which has been built expressly for Mr. Cleveland's use about Buzzard's Bay. It is described as being very neat and graceful, 35 feet long and 9 feet beam. The naptha launch is intended to replace the catboat Ruth for long fishing trips.

Private Secretary Thurber remained at Gray Gables as the guest of the president, together with Secretary Lamont, until last night, when he returned to Marion on the new launch, which was manned for the occasion by the crew of the Oneida.

Oklahoma Divorces Null and Void.

GUTHRIE, O. T., July 29.—The suit to test the divorce granted by the probate judge of Oklahoma has been decided by the supreme court adversely to the judges and the divorces, the court affirming its former decisions on the subject, denying the right of probate judges to grant divorces, and declaring all such null and void, and any subsequent marriages of the parties illegal. Hundreds of eastern people who have secured Oklahoma divorces from probate courts will be compelled to have their cases retried in the district courts.

British Ship Sakoto Missing.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—The British ship Sakoto left Liverpool for this port 170 days ago and nothing has been heard of her for weeks. She was last spoken off the Horn by the Dranchiff vessel which arrived in London several weeks ago. At this season of the year headwinds and calms on this coast are not very unusual and it might be that the Sakoto has been destroyed by encountering some of them. Notwithstanding the uncertainty of the season much anxiety is felt for the safety of the Sakoto.

Founder of Adventism Dead.

ELK POINT, S. D., July 29.—Elder Joshua Vaughan Himes, the famous co-worker of William Miller, the founder of Adventism, is dead, at the age of 91. Mr. Himes was born in Wickford, R. I. The family were Episcopalians but the boy became a member of the New England sect, commonly called Christian Baptists, and for a number of years served as a general missionary. In 1879, however, Elder Himes returned to the church of his youth and has since remained with it.

NEWARK, O., July 29.—John A. Hoagland, agent of the Adams express here, disappeared last Friday. An investigation of his accounts show that he is short $1,190. Hoagland left the safe locked, and it is not known whether it contains cash to cover the shortage or not.

NUMBER INCREASING

Two More Possible Victims of Murderer Holmes.

ANOTHER DAY'S INVESTIGATION.

Evidence That Janitor Pat Quinlan Was an Accomplice and Fully Cognizant of Most, if Not All of Holmes' Deeds - One More Arrest Made—More Startling Developments Expected in a Few Days.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Developments in the investigation into the criminal deeds of H. H. Holmes of Chicago closed the net still tighter around Pat Quinlan, and added still more proof to that already existing that he was an accomplice of the arch murderer and fully cognizant of most, if not all, of his deeds.

The name of Milford Cole, formerly of Baltimore, was also added to the list of Holmes' possible victims, as was also that of another woman who was for a short time a resident of the "castle" in Sixty-third street.

The date of the disappearance of Mrs. Julia Conner was yesterday fixed as Christmas day, 1891. This information was obtained from Mrs. John Crowe, who occupied rooms in the Holmes' castle from early in 1891 to September, 1892, and whose name in connection with the case has never before been mentioned.

Last night Officer Fitzpatrick arrested a man in Englewood who is believed to be H. S. Mack, who worked for Holmes during the last six months he lived in the Sixty-third street house. Mack's identification with the druggist's operations was furnished by Railroad Detective Young, who used to live in the castle. The police have been looking for him since Friday and now that they have him in the toils they admit unreservedly that they have the most important witness that have yet rounded up. Whether he can tell anything about Holmes personally, they are not certain, but that he knows all about Pat Quinlan and his wife and their connection with Holmes they feel sure from certain admissions he has made to friends.

The whole trend of the present investigation is not only to fasten the crimes upon Holmes, but also upon Mr. and Mrs. Quinlan so they can be arraigned for murder. Chief Badenock says he does not believe the Philadelphia authorities will ever surrender Holmes, and therefore he is determined that Illinois justice shall be meted out to his accomplices here.

The police are satisfied that the skeleton, which is now safe in the vault of Inspector Fitzpatrick's office, is all that remains of Annie Williams, sister of Minnie. They have no means of proving that this is so, because the teeth have been destroyed and the jawbones broken, but nevertheless they are satisfied that their conclusions are correct. Yesterday's revelations have also convinced the police that the house at Sixty-third street was the scene of all of Holmes' murders, and that the mysterious office on the third floor was employed exclusively for the butchery of his victims.

Charles M. Chappell, "ring at 100 Twenty-ninth street has informed the police that he had mounted three skeletons for Holmes, and that the skeletons were from bodies taken from the house of Holmes in Sixty-third street. One of these, he said, was the body of a man, and the other two were women. They were taken from a dark room in Holmes' house in the night time, and two of the mounted skeletons were returned to Holmes.

The third skeleton is now in possession of Inspector Fitzpatrick. The flesh of the bodies had not been stripped from the bones when the bodies were given to the witness, but the faces were so badly lacerated and torn that identification would have been impossible.

Chappell is a machinist, a carpenter and engineer—a sort of jack of all trades. From the information which Chappell gave to the police they learned that Chappell had also been an all-around mechanic for Holmes and had built two tanks in the basement of the castle for the destruction of bodies which Holmes might wish to get rid of. In them went the bodies of a long list of women, once tenants of the castle and now numbered with the dead. The tank will be opened.

Chappell's admissions are the most remarkable and damaging yet received by the police against Holmes and his confederates. They reveal the existence of a complete system of machinery in the castle for the commission of murder, commencing with the steel chamber or vault, the dissecting table and ending in the acid tanks, where all evidences of the deed but the bones were moved.

In addition to the confessions of Chappell the police also located some of the clothing of Minnie R. Williams and Julia L. Conner, which Holmes gave away after they disappeared. The combination to the steel vault has been found in the possession of Chappell. It is now believed by the police that Howard Pietzel was killed in Chicago and his remains disposed of.

Mother and Son Drowned.

COREDO, W. Va., July 29.—Mrs. Williams Pierce of Middleport, N. Y., and her married son, Franklin, who own a large family boat and travel by river operating a merry-go-round, were both drowned here yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Pierce was walking on the rear of the boat, when she accidentally fell into the river. Her son jumped in after her, and the current swept them both under a float of barge lying just below. Both bodies have been recovered, and will be shipped to New York for burial.

SOME of the big daily papers, it seems, have not found out yet that a rival of Joe Mulhatton is acting as their correspondent at Greenup. Here is the substance of his latest story sent to the Courier Journal:

Jack Spencer broke up a dance in Greenup County because his rival, George Daniels, was standing too close to the object of their affection, Miss Lotta West. Spencer threw a polecat through the window at Daniels, but it hit Miss West and at her command the animal was tied about Spencer's neck after his arms had been pinioned and he was forced to walk to his home, a mile distant, in that condition.

HELENA NO. 321.

Oddfellows Instituted a New Lodge Saturday Afternoon Under Favorable Auspices.

Helena Lodge No. 321, I. O. O. F., was instituted Saturday afternoon under favorable auspices, District Deputy Byron Rudy, of this city, officiating.

Maysville, Mayslick, Flemingsburg, Elizaville and Tollesboro were all well represented, a large crowd being in attendance.

The home of the new lodge is on the second floor of a handsome new two-story building. The hall is about twenty-eight feet wide and about forty feet in length, and is handsomely finished and furnished.

Dr. D. D. Peck, James Crain, C. A. Crain, James Callahan and Thomas Webster were petitioners for the charter, and to them is largely due the credit for getting up the new lodge. The following additional members were initiated: Thomas Kirkland, Robert Cook, Robert G. Wood, Alfred McAtee, Samuel Hall, John D. Farris, Frank L. Griffin, Joseph Cooper, C. M. Jones, A. M. Ewing, James Grimes, Rev. Leonidas Robinson and John J. Cook were also elected members but were not able to be present and receive the degrees.

The meeting was called to order at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon and addresses were delivered by Mayor Cox and Mr. Thomas A. Davis, of this city. Rev. F. M. Tinder, of Mayslick, was on the program for an address but was unable to be present.

After the lodge was formally instituted an adjournment was had for supper. The tables fairly groaned under the weight of the substantial and delicacies the good people of Helena had prepared for the visitors, and that it was thoroughly enjoyed goes without saying.

At night the members were initiated into the mysteries of the order, Messrs. Cox and Rudy officiating, in turn, as Noble Grand, Allen A. Edmonds as Vice Grand, Thomas A. Davis as Past Grand, Thomas M. Luman as Conductor, and W. C. Pelham as Warden.

The ceremonies were concluded at midnight, and then after enjoying a lunch the visitors took their departure, the Maysville part of the crowd reaching home at 3 a. m.

Following are the officers of the new lodge:

N. G.—D. D. Peck.
 V. G.—Thomas Webster.
 Secretary—James Grimes.
 Treasurer—Robert G. Wood.

HARPERS' WEEKLY

Strongly Condemns the Republican Leaders For Dodging the Silver Issue.

The Hope For Sound Money Found in the Democratic Party.

[Harpers' Weekly.]

Of late years it has frequently been observed that there is this remarkable difference between the Republican and the Democratic parties; the rank and file of the Republican party, particularly in the Northern States, is said to embody a majority of the more intelligent, well-to-do, and "virtuous" elements of the population; but its leadership is pusillanimous, selfish and tricky. The Democratic party, on the other-hand, may, indeed, have among its ranks and file a large proportion of the less desirable elements of society, but its controlling leadership is far more honest, public-spirited and courageous, and therefore more efficient. This observation applies with especial force to the Republican party since what we may in general terms call "Blaineism" became the ruling spirit in the organization, and to the Democratic party since Mr. Cleveland rose in it to a position of predominating influence. And never has this constitutional difference between the two parties been more strikingly evident and more instructive than at the present time, while the silver question is the problem of the day.

Not many weeks ago we saw the silver craze sweeping over the South and West like an irresistible hurricane, apparently carrying everything with it. The Democratic party in those regions seemed to be hopelessly given over to the tender mercies of the free coinage men, and the more sanguine among the fanatics hoped even to get control of the organization in the North and East too. The friends of sound money, even many of those who so far had stoutly stood by the Democratic party, began to make up their minds that to preserve the country from the free-coinage disaster they would have to depend upon the conservative spirit prevailing in the Republican ranks, and that at the next Presidential election, in the absence of a specific sound-money ticket, they would have to vote for the Republican candidates. Indeed, no party ever had a more assured prospect of success than the Republican, and never within our memory did the result of a coming Presidential election seem to be more completely a foregone conclusion twenty months before election-time. To speak of the possibility of a Democratic victory sounded like ridiculous bluster, and it may be said without exaggeration that no cool-headed Democrat seriously thought of such a thing.

To-day this is very much changed. Not only has public opinion ceased to regard the Democratic party as hopelessly in the clutch of the free silver fanatics, but the question whether the sound money cause may not after all be safer in the hands of a Democratic than of a Republican administration is now soberly discussed by many sensible men. And this surprising change has been brought about by nothing else than the imbecile and cowardly conduct of the Republican leaders on one side, and the sagacious, intrepid and vigorous leadership of Mr. Cleveland on the other. Courage inspires not only respect, but also confidence. Cowardice begets not only contempt, but also distrust. And when the people see such men as McKinley, Harrison, Reed—in fact, every Presidential possibility in the Republican party—carefully dodge every public occasion on which an expression of their views on the silver question may be demanded, or whenever those great personages do venture upon an utterance, express themselves in vague and ambiguous phrase—when the people see this they instinctively remember that the same kind of faint-hearted and tricky Republican leadership brought upon the country the Allison law and the Sherman law—in fact, all those measures intended to hold the silver mining States in the Republican column—which resulted in so much disaster. They also conclude that the same Republican partisan selfishness which, in spite of the good character of the Republican rank and file, has thus so often betrayed the sound money cause will, to judge from the present conduct of Republican leaders, by no means be unlikely to do so again.

"FARMER" DAVIS.
He Pitched For the "Indians" Saturday and Maysville Lost—Interesting Base Ball Gossip.

Those Tennessee "Indians" defeated Maysville Saturday, taking the last game of the series. Davis the "farmer" boy was in the box for Knoxville, which accounts for the defeat of Maysville.

Davis hasn't lost a game this year. Following is the score of Saturday's game:

Innings.....	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Knoxville.....	5	0	0	2	2	1	3	2	1-10
Maysville.....	0	0	2	0	3	0	0	0	2-7

Batteries, Knoxville, Davis and Grim; Maysville, Keenan and Tenley. Hits, Maysville 10, Knoxville 18. Errors, Maysville 4, Knoxville 3.

The Maysvilles play at Frankfort today and to-morrow.

Speaking of Friday's game the Knoxville Tribune says: "Somebody sneaked up behind the Knoxville aggregation of ball tossers and hypnotized the whole lay-out Friday before the game with Maysville. The hypnotizers gave McDonald a double dose, for twenty-six fine large hits were made off him by the visitors. They hammered the ball, it seemed, just where they desired and ran bases until they were tired.

Knoxville opened with three. Litz made a single, Moffett a double and Crawley and Jobe triples each. Then Maysville took a turn and on two errors by McClung aided by Heilman's double, they pushed two around.

Grim put one over the fence in the second and the visitors were blanked. Then the locals were shut out and the visitors didn't do a thing but make fourteen runs in one inning. Runners crossed the plate as fast as papers fall out of the Tribune's new perfecting press. McGann, Rieman and Keenan went to bat twice and each made two hits in one inning. Tenley got one, so did Hillery and Wadsworth and then Van Winkle added insult to injury by putting one over the fence. Oh, it was awful. Talk about knocking the babies down, it would have kept a cigar factory busy to have kept even with the game.

THE SCORE.

Home runs, Van Winkle, McGann, Flournoy; Grim 2. Three base hits, Jobe, Crawley. Two base hits, Heilman, McGann, Moffett, McDonald. Struck out, by Reiman 2. Bases on balls, by Reiman 1, by McDonald 3. Double plays, Heilman, McGann and Hillery, Keenan and Hillery, Dillard and Liz. Attendance 800.

Knoxville Tribune: "Heilman, Maysville's crack short-stop whom Moffett has tried hard to get, will remain with the Kentucky team."

Forsooth, they oft have faced the foe.
When face the foe they must.
And batted balls such stinging blows
That turned them into dust.

Now when the Southern challenge comes We'll gird them for their fights,
And send them with a good old name
To battle for our rights.

They'll come with all their "war paint" on,
With balls and bats galore;
But when "our Reiman's" through with 'em,
They'll trouble us no more.

They'll meet, just wait, they'll stand abashed,
All trembling and at bay.
For from "our Reiman's" hand there'll dash
A drop curve for "Kid Ray."

O, Maysville "ball fans," don't despair,
For you will doubtless see,
We'll send those "Indians" scalpless home
To Northern Tennessee.

IN Shelby County, on the farm of D. W. Middleton, lightning played a queer prank. After striking a tobacco plant and knocking it to pieces, the lightning traveled up the row and gave four or five hands a distinct shock, and wound up by killing all the tobacco on the far end of the row and several feet from where it first struck.

MESSRS. OTTO MEININGER, Frank E. Butler, John G. Rielly, Robert Wagner, A. O. Weiss, Albert H. Wagner, Anthony Eisen, H. C. Koehler and C. C. Richardson, a party of Cincinnati wheelmen, were at the Central yesterday, and left during the day for a run through Central Kentucky. In passing through Mayslick one of the party ran over a razor, ruining the tires of his wheel and compelling him to abandon the trip. He returned here and left for home on the Flyer.

PAIN Kentuckian: "Dr. Hearne's trial at Hannibal, Missouri, for alleged killing of Stillwell attracts a great deal of attention. He killed him, it is claimed, and soon after married Stillwell's wife his second, and also Stillwell's second. Hearne is of Bourbon and Fayette descent, and Stillwell and wife of Mason descent. The trial comes up under his suit for damages against San Francisco Chronicle for reviving the charge of Hearne's guilt. Dr. Hearne had moved to California from Hannibal, and was doing well until this story was revived."

To Extend the Electric Railway.
A scheme is on foot to extend the electric railway, following Commerce or Lexington, passing through Clifton and then along a street to be opened south of the pulley factory and Mr. J. James Wood's residence. The move is meeting with a favorable response from big property-holders along the route.

CRAZED OVER RELIGION.
A Resident of Lewis County Attempts to Take the Life of His Sister.

A special from Vanceburg says that Richard Cooley, a prominent citizen of Fairview, was Saturday sent to an insane asylum, having been pronounced a dangerous lunatic. Early Saturday morning he attempted to cut his sister's throat with a razor.
"For over six months Cooley had been making great efforts," the dispatch says, to form a new religious sect and gather followers about him as he believed. He succeeded in inducing many to take up his queer dogmas. One of the principles of Cooley's religion was the offering of human life as a sacrifice.
"He held meetings weekly in his home, and although but few people attended them, he was as energetic in his efforts as if he had hundreds of followers. During the last few weeks he has talked and preached so much upon the subject that he became deranged. Night and day he was busy planning for what he said was a great future, and all Friday night he was busy at his desk writing and making preparations for a grand meeting.
"When daylight came he awoke his sister and called her into his study. He told her that it was time he offered up a sacrifice to God. Never dreaming she was the intended victim, and being used to his queer ways, she humored him and tried to induce him to retire. He said that he would, and in a dramatic way he called her to him, placed one arm about her, and while she was least expecting it he pulled a razor from his pocket, and attempted to cut her throat.
"He succeeded in cutting her slightly, but before he could complete his intended deed she struggled from his embrace. Running out of the house she summoned help, and it was not long before a large crowd gathered.
"Officers came, and when they attempted to arrest Mr. Cooley he fought desperately for his liberty. They succeeded, after a hard struggle, in taking him to the station house. There was no delay in examining him as to his sanity, and it did not take the doctors long to pronounce him insane. Shortly after they rendered their decision an order of court was issued, directing that he be sent to an asylum."

FIRE IN NEW YORK.
Nearly Two Hundred Thousand Dollars Worth of Property Destroyed.
New York, July 29.—A destructive fire started in the basement of the 6-story brick building, 19 and 21 West Twenty-second street, fronting on 28 and 30 West Twenty-third street, yesterday, and gutted the establishment of Scharles Brothers, dealers in toys, and Jacquini & Company, dealers in French millinery. The entire rear portion of the structure was badly damaged. The stock of Scharles Brothers was completely destroyed, and that of Jacquini & Company was so badly damaged by fire and water that it is likely to prove a total loss.

Various office establishments in the upper stories of the building suffered lesser losses. The firemen worked hard and successfully to save the large establishments of Stern Brothers, adjoining. The damage will be in the neighborhood of $200,000, the greater portion falling upon Scharles Brothers and Jacquini & Company. The building, owned by Stern Brothers, was damaged, it was said, to the extent of $20,000.

OLD COLORED MAN LYNCHED.

He Was Thought to Have Been Implicated in a Murder.

MERIDIAN, Miss., July 29.—Charlie Burwell, colored, about 65 years old, was lynched near here Saturday night. It was thought that he was concerned in the Farmer outrage which occurred within a stone's throw of where he was hung. On the night of the Fourth of July Lewis Farmer and his wife, who run a small store about two miles from here, was murderously assaulted and left for dead, after which their store was robbed.

Later developments seem to fasten the lynching on the real culprits since it is learned that this old negro, Burwell, was promised a reward of $250 to ferret out the guilty parties. This became known to those concerned in the Farmer outrage and they are thought to have made away with Burwell.

They went to South Bend, where they were arrested.

CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

Demand Continues Strong But Prices
Irregular at Times—The Growing Crop.

Regarding the week's market and the outlook for the future, the Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company says:
The tobacco trade has gradually settled back until prices are within close reach of those obtained before the boom came, and from all indications we see nothing at present to encourage holders of tobacco to expect much improvement in the trade, unless the shortage is much greater than is now anticipated.

The demand continues very strong for all grades having color. No doubt there is a great scarcity of color in the crop, and those who were fortunate in getting this class of tobacco will have no difficulty in selling at good round figures.

The offerings last week have not shown as much good tobacco as usual; the largest portion of the sales being composed of medium and low grades, caused the buyers to be a little careless in bidding, and at times prices were irregular.
All fancy tobacco offered was taken at good prices, and the bidding was quite spirited, although prices are lower than the fore part of the month. The largest portion of the offerings were sold.

The receipts have been larger and the stocks are gradually increasing in the market, which is not unusual at this season of the year.

Reports from the growing districts are more favorable, as the rains have been sufficient to keep the crop growing finely, and the shortage will not be as great as many anticipated one month ago. In some localities there is no doubt a shortage in planting, but the increased radius of the tobacco belt will probably make up the deficiency.

The market closed at about the same figures that it opened with on Tuesday, with fair prospects for a steady market during the coming week.

FIRE INSURANCE.—Duley & Baldwin.

A FARMER named Allison, living in Letcher County, made short work of an over-confident lightning rod peddler last Monday. The traveler with his tumb of good yarns and plausible propositions called on Farmer Allison and insisted on selling a lot of rods. On being told that rods were not needed or wanted, the agent persisted, and Farmer Allison took the wandering William from Yanketoom by the ear and led him to the front gate.
There he was told to make tracks with the heels toward the house.

AT RUGGLES.

The People Delighted With Miss Cartwright, the Evangelist.

RUGGLES CAMP, July 26.
We have had a lovely day. The sun shown beautiful and bright. As the sun rose the people assembled for morning prayer; the meeting being led by Brother Wallingford. Afterwards came the 9 o'clock experience meeting led by Brother George M. Harding. Then the 10:30 service, when the Rev. G. N. Jolly preached from 1st Cor. 111, 9th. At 3 o'clock we had a glorious young people's meeting, led by Miss Cartwright, during which several were at the altar.

The people are delighted with Miss Cartwright and her co-worker Miss Powell. You will hear of some good results from the labors of these Godly women.

The Board of Directors were never so pushed for cottages as this year. They are now partitioning off the children's chapel in order to accommodate the demand for rooms. And so old Ruggles is pushing to the front as a camp meeting where the people go to get good and go home the better for coming here.

Professor Crabb has now got his choir organized and the singing is just grand. Prof. Stickley, of Maysville, plays the clarinet. Mr. Stickley's wife and children are with him and they are tenting on the ground. He says the improvements made to the grounds since he was here a few years ago are wonderful, and Prof.
Crabb and the Ashland people say they are delighted, beyond anything they had thought of.

Six more people from Mt. Carmel to-day, making forty-six from that small town. Two or three families came in to-day whose names I did not get. The bus brought out Rev. Sturgell from Greenville, Brother Lane, Mr. Gus Emmitt and Miss Shepard from Maysville. Rev. Childers came in from Sardis and preached at the night service, from Numbers X, 33.

originated by us. All successful speculators operate on a regular system.

It is a well-known fact that there are thousands of men in all parts of the United States who, by systematic trading through Chicago brokers, make large amounts every year, ranging from a few thousand dollars for the man who invests a hundred or two hundred dollars up to $50,000 to $100,000 or more by those who invest a few thousand.

It is also a fact that those who make the largest profits from comparatively small investments on this plan are persons who live away from Chicago and invest through brokers who thoroughly understand systematic trading.

Our plan does not risk the whole amount invested on any trade, but covers both sides, so that whether the market rises or falls it brings a steady profit that piles up enormously in a short time.
